Disclaimer for Online Payment After Due date

Energy Bills paid online after due date are subject to delayed payment charges, interest and line disconnections as per standard MSEDCL procedure. MSEDCL has extended online payment facility after due date merely as an additional method to pay the electricity energy bill. Bills paid after due date do not grant any exemption to the defaulting consumer from penal actions. It is non-abiding on MSEDCL to suspend any actions already set in progress as per the terms & conditions of supply of electricity, including but not limited to disconnection of electric supply, for energy bills not paid on or before due date.

If you are unable to view your receipt after successful payment, you can view, download or print the receipt from Online Payment History screen.
